Land Banks Adopting ePropertyPlus's Start Up Program at a Record Pace

Licking County Land Bank in Newark, Ohio works to return blighted property to productive use and stabilize property values, improving the quality of life in communities across the county. As an agent of the County for the reclamation, rehabilitation, and reutilization of real property, the land bank is an open and